Newsletter - 11th May 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

With only two weeks left of this half-term there is still much to do, including our Y6 SATs next week.

Can I apologise for not informing you about class pictures this week. We have ensured that it is booked for next year and will give you plenty of advance warning.

Please remember to have a look at our website which is regularly updated with pictures and news.

Have a great weekend.

Kind regards,

Mr N.Mindham (Headteacher)

Although everyone at Gaywood Primary School love animals, please be advised that dogs or any other animals are not permitted on the school grounds for health and safety reasons - even if you are carrying them.

Thank you for your support with this.

For your information, we have had a few instances of nits reported to us this week.

The Big Sing!

Members of Gaywood Primary School choir were in fine voice last week, taking part in 'The Big Sing!' at the Norfolk Showground. Children listened to performances from Alexandra Burk and Clean Bandit before singing several of their songs as a choir of nearly nine thousand people.

We have put a selection of pictures on our website.
